A month of achievements

May was a short month for us with bank holidays and the half term but we still managed to pack an awful lot in. Blatch became part of the Brighton Festival during May - we opened our quad as an Art Gallery at weekends and our students performed in both dance and music pieces to great acclaim.

Our status as a performing arts college was further enhanced when we learned that we had been successful in retaining the Gold Arts Award. A major accomplishment for the school and many thanks to Jenni Oatway and her team for making this happen.

Thank you to the vast majority of the Year 8 parents for joining us for the Parents' Evening. I trust you will have gained much from this evening as we always do. May is also the time when we switch from the curriculum to revision programme for our Year 11 students. They excelled themselves at the Record of Achievement ceremony at Hove Town Hall. They organised the whole event themselves and it was a most enjoyable occasion. It was a fine way of recognising the talent and achievement within this year group and providing them with a springboard to their next steps. We all wish each and every one of you luck and good wishes for your exams and we look forward to seeing you on Exam Results Day on Thursday 27th August. It was also the time to watch our Year 13 students prepare mentally and emotionally to leave Blatch6 for their pastures new. We send you off with all of our good wishes and look forward to seeing you on your Exam Results Day on Thursday 20th August.

We have some major events to look forward to in June - FAB, Year 7 Parents' Evening, Town Sports, Voices, Family Festival, The Art Exhibition and the Year 11 Prom. I think you'll agree this is a wide range of opportunities for you and your children. I look forward to meeting many of you at these.

Finally, you will have heard considerable reference to Swine Flu over the past few weeks. I am kept informed of the latest advice and have plans in place should we need to close. I am pleased to inform you that we have had no cases reported here at Blatch but will act appropriately should this change. I would ask that you ensure your contact details are correct so that we can expedite our plans effectively.

Message from the Chair

One of the exciting things about being a governor is to be involved in the development of the students to equip them for life. As I write I am looking forward to the Y11 Record of Achievement to be held at Hove Town Hall today. This is such a special occasion for all concerned, the culmination of five years work and fun, a time when parents and carers can reflect on the time when their youngster joined the school, the anxious and the proud moments that followed. On behalf of the Governors I thank you for working with us to offer the best experience to your child enabling them to achieve their potential and to develop their emotional and social skills - the strength of our partnership between parents and the school is an essential ingredient to the success of the students. I hope to see some of the students back in September in Blatch6 and for those who are moving on – good luck for the future and keep in touch!

Sixth Form Induction Day

Monday 29th June

All Year 11 students returning to Blatch6 in September are formally invited to an induction day on Monday 29th June, involving a variety of sessions, meeting teachers and familiarising students with sixth form life. The day will begin at 9.00am in the Theatre. All students attending the induction day need to return their reply slip by Friday 19th June.

Sixth Form raise over £600 so far for charities

Every year a charity is chosen for RAG week and this year we chose the Rocking Horse Appeal and the Teenage Cancer Trust. Students in the 6th Form went about raising money for these causes through a variety of different events - a football tournament, acoustic gigs, aerobics and forcing younger students into handing over money were all part of the agenda, with the latter being by far the most successful.

Many 6th Formers also took part in 'Strictly Duets'. A rigorous training programme saw the students put their teachers' vocal skills to the test. Mr Betts, Mila Brazzi, Mr Walmsley, Louis Isaacs, Mr Rutter, Ms Oatway, Mr Alexander and Roxy Henley are just a few of the students and teachers who took part in the duet-singing showdown on Tuesday 31st March. Mr Fitzpatrick returned to host the show, guiding the performers through the critique of the judging panel. The highlight of the night came from Ms Field and Ben Simpson, their performance of 'Big Spender' secured them the title of Champions!

Dog walkers at Hove Park were in for a surprise during RAG week as Scooby-Doo casually chatted with Superman and Pocahontas, and Hermione Granger joyfully skipped her way round, followed by two Smurfs on a three-legged mission - these odd happenings all part of the fun of Rag-week at Blatch6.

To date a total of over £600 has been raised this year, which will go towards those with serious conditions, for whom the extra funding will come as a great relief and comfort. It was in many senses a touching experience seeing the charitable nature of those during times of economic hardship, and our thanks, the students of Blatch6, go out to all those who contributed in any way.

The Teenspirit Review

by Tom Guerriero-Davies, 11KG*

TEENSPIRIT
SATURDAY 25TH APRIL 2009

A humid Spring's day comes to its end, leaving in its wake a glorious sunset behind the Palace Pier while a throng of eager teens builds up in front of Brighton's Concorde 2. It's an old fashioned, perfectly sized rock venue, and tonight plays host to Teenspirit. Held annually, this show gives Under 16 bands a wonderful opportunity to play on a stage previously graced by acts of the caliber of Foo Fighters, The Gaslight Anthem and The White Stripes.

First to take to the stage are creatively named Dr Pump, who get the evening off to an energetic bang with their bluesy tones. It is clear from the off that the fresh-faced crowd assembled is more than up for a rock-out. Second band The Desperate's slick rendition of the Undertones classic 'Teenage Kicks' inevitably gets the crowd going, and gives the older members of the crowd something to sing about.

A temporary acoustic stage has been set up for the event, giving the crowd a soothing break from the pounding bass and shrieking guitars in between the main band sets. Keyboard/guitar duo Jariam prove a hit, but it's Dan Goddard's set that goes down as the big crowd winner. Showing impressive warmth from a voice accustomed to the screams of metal, the This Is Massacre frontman's cover of Rihanna hit 'Umbrella' gets the biggest sing along of the night by some distance.

Back to the main stage, and after a procession of bands keep the show rolling at full tilt, it's the turn of alternative rockers Qualia. They're in Year 10, but in comparison to the rest of the line up these guys are veterans of the Brighton scene, with four years' experience under their belts. They're physically taller than the previous bands as well, and their strong stage presence and familiarity, coupled with a bludgeoning rhythm section, is key to the superb reaction they receive.

All that this gig needs now is for someone to steal the show. Cue home schooled heroes 'She's Abstract'. Their power chord enthused Grunge-punk generates the most crowd movement of the night. The packed Concorde goes crazy under the strobing as the snarling melodies of 'The Underground Event' ring out around the club. Here's a three-piece that are going somewhere, and they round the show off perfectly.

Many members of the audience will have been attending their first gig tonight, and they have had the perfect introduction from a line-up who have had an equally unforgettable evening.

*Tom won the Music Journalism Competition in school by writing a winning review of Teenspirit in less than 400 words.

'Crunch Club' Christian Lunch Time Club

A team from a local charity "Off the Fence" have been running "Crunch Club" on a Thursday lunch time for several years now. The club, which meets in E3 during lower school lunch and C13 during upper school lunch, provides a safe space for students at lunch times to come and find out more about what Christians believe through games, videos and discussions. Once a term the team meets with interested members of staff and parents to pray for the club and for the Blatchington Mill community as a whole. All parents are warmly invited to attend the next prayer meeting, which will be on Monday 8th June at 8pm at Bishop Hannington Church, Nevill Avenue. If you would like any further details or if you have any items you would like to forward for prayer please contact Ms E Fletcher at school on efletcher@blatchingtonmill.org.uk.

Summer Evening Orienteering & Parks Orienteering

As summer slowly approaches the emphasis in Orienteering turns away from the forests, with their nasty nettles & biting brambles, to the more sedate vistas of our local parks.

This year Southdowns Orienteers, with close links to the school, has planned ten events. All are within a few miles of Blatch, and happen over the summer months. The Wednesday evening events take in Devil's Dyke, Borde Hill Gardens, Southwick Hill & Slindon Common, with the first event on Wednesday 24th June.

The Saturday morning 'Come & Try It' Park events include Preston Park, Varndean School & Buckingham Park in Shoreham. These start at the end of June and go on until September. They are ideal opportunities for families to try orienteering for the first time in a relaxed, informal and safe setting, as well as providing more challenging courses for the experienced orienteer.

The student portal has all the events and details or contact Mr S Ewens at school on sewens@blatchingtonmill.org.uk for more details.

Shakespeare Alfresco

On 15th May, 43 Y10s went to see an outdoor production of William Shakespeare's 'Romeo and Juliet' at The Globe theatre in London. We were extremely nervous about the weather since the show always goes on and as 'groundlings' (standing in front of the stage) we would not have been allowed to use umbrellas - blocking the views for the privileged in the seats. However, despite a brief shower on arrival, the weather stayed dry, and the sun even came out on a few occasions. Being groundlings actually gave us the best view of the stage - so the students commented that the only disadvantage was being in firing range of the actors' sprays of spit! They loved the outdoor atmosphere. Highlights included the pigeon who landed on the stage and proceeded to strut across it and the drunk apothecary who leapt out of a trapdoor in the stage, making everyone jump in the process. There was a risk of students getting bored or tired (a few managed to blag some seats!) but most were riveted by the acting. Students commented that the actors made the play really accessible with actions and humour, so you didn't necessarily need to know the language to follow it. Most loved the actors playing Benvolio and Mercutio but were a little disappointed in Juliet (played by the actor who was Anne Frank in the BBC's recent drama) who seemed very young. Peter/ Potpan provided lots of laughs, while Romeo had a few admirers amongst the girls! Many thanks to staff, Ms. Miskiewicz and Mr. Fawcett, for giving up their time and to students for their respectful behaviour and appreciation. "It was amazing!" said Ella Cawthorne 10SP.

Trips, visits and events

Interreg Science Exchange

Y9 environmentally conscious students partnered up with a French school in Rouen, 'Les Bruyeres Lycee', for a trip of a lifetime as part of the Interreg Science Exchange. Each day the students studied different issues that are affecting our fragile planet, including cliff erosion, treatment of sewage water (no doubt the smelliest part of the trip!) and the preservation of precious wetlands. The final project was a newspaper that the French and English students worked on together, on display in the West Wing Science corridor. Come by and have a look!
- Jordan Webb, 9BK

What the students said:

"My favourite part of the trip was definitely going to the top of the cliff, I loved looking at all the species of birds and the absolutely fantastic views, and the nutty tour guide!"

"I loved talking to the French and looking at how different their lifestyle and surroundings were like. I had great fun in Paris and enjoyed the boat ride."

"Its was one of the best trips of my life. The best thing was getting to know people more and meeting new, very interesting people!"

"This trip was definitely the best trip I have been on with any school! Thanks to all the teachers for being very nice and letting us enjoy our holiday!"

Our science Interreg trip to France was really fun, and we can say that everyone enjoyed the trip and would like to do it again. Our theme of the trip was sustainable development. We had lots of different day trips to look at different topics including a water processing plant, a walk along the coast to study cliff erosion, a walk in a swamp / bog to look at habitats of certain insects and animals. We also visited the EANA park, the first leisure park in France dedicated to sustainable development. From these few day trips we had to put together a project on a topic we were given, using notes we had from research and the various days out.
